

Peer City Comparison - Residential Parking

Code	Charlotte	Cumberland Co	Durham	Greensboro	Greenville	High Point	Hope Mills	Raleigh	Wilmington	Winston-Salem
Staff member responded to request	Yes	Yes	No	No	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	No
Are vehicles required to be parked on paved driveways in residential	Yes, enforced with $25 tickets and towing by Police on 4th violation on same vehicle	No	Yes only on front and side	Yes, front yard only	Yes and it is enforced	Yes and it is enforced	No	No, surfacing standards do not apply to single family & duplex	No	Yes, front yard only if in a No Parking on the Lawn Area
Limit on number of vehicles parked outside	None	None	None	None	None	None	None	None	Yes in special overlay in and around the UNCW campus only. Resident vehicles +2	None
Limit on number of vehicles parked in front, corner side, side or rear yard	None	None	No limits, rv's, boats, campers or other trailers must be parked to the rear of the primary structure	Front yard limitation only based on maximum area of parking surface	None	None	None	None	Not specific to area. Max limit in overlay for entire property	Front yard limitation only based on maximum area of parking surface
Can vehicles without current registration be parked outside	Yes, not specifically prohibited as long as they do not meet standards for Junk, Abandoned or Nuisance	No, enforcement is only done after a complaint is made	Yes, not specifically prohibited as long as they do not meet standards for Junk, Abandoned or Nuisance	Yes, not specifically prohibited as long as they do not meet standards for Junk, Abandoned or Nuisance	Yes, not specifically prohibited as long as they do not meet standards for Junk, Abandoned or Nuisance and parked on an improved surface	Yes only one permitted if in side or rear yard	Yes, not specifically prohibited as long as they do not meet standards for Junk, Abandoned or Nuisance	Yes only one permitted	Yes, one vehicle that is not operational is permitted in the rear yard	Yes, not specifically prohibited as long as they do not meet standards for Junk, Abandoned or Nuisance