Relevant Experience & Education

1. Summarize education, special skills and qualifications you have acquired from employment, previous volunteer work, or through other activities.

In Broadcasting you deal with people in all types of situations, on many levels, as a broadcaster I learned to do this as well as handle situations that effect people lives' studied at Fayetteville State University, while being a single parent of three children, and once these three were adults, I helped with their children be being guardian of my five grandchildren, this action helped me deal with different types of tempers attitudes and a great deal of emotion. I volunteer at United Way, Radio Reading Room on Fayetteville State University's' campus and am a member of the Cumberland County Board of Elections, where I have served as a Judge for District 2 at Prescient 19 for over 12 years.

2. Due to your financial interests, property ownership and/or other matters, personal conflicts of interest may arise during your appointment term. How would you handle a personal conflict of interest?

There are times a person does have to vote in their own best interest, but if I and I alone would be the only one effected then I would simply abstain.

3. Have you previously served on a board or commission? If so, please describe the scope of your appointment and share a few of the board's successes.

Yes, Fayetteville Area of Transportation

Supplemental Questionnaire:

1. Describe your background and interest in serving on the Fayetteville City Council. I have lived in Fayetteville all my life and have very deep family roots here, this city means a great deal to me. This is where my parents were raised and as I did attend school here. In the last couple of years I have watched a great many things happen that I agreed with and a great many I did not agree with and those I feel saddened by because someone should have spoken up.
2. Explain why you believe you would be an asset to the Fayetteville City Council. This is my home ever since I was small I have just wanted to help out. Now I have that chance and by being a member of the City Council I will do all I can to help this city to continue to grow and give its residents the very best possible service, I can. Click here to enter text.
3. Are you willing and able to commit the amount of time necessary to fulfill the duties of the City Council? Yes totally
4. Will your current employment allow you time away from your work on a regular basis? Currently not employed
5. The City of Fayetteville operates under a Council-Manager form of government. Explain your understanding of the Council's and Manager's role under this form of government. The City Manager is there to guide and to make sure that the Council's decisions are in line with standards of Federal and State laws, and in no way restricts the rights of the people. The manager also keeps a sharp eye on the budget

6. Is there anything in your background that could bring your appointment into question or cause controversy/embarrassment to the City? No
7. What experience and contacts do you have with the legislature at the State and Federal level? On a personal level , none
8. Please disclose any personal, professional/business or political relationships with PWC, the City of Fayetteville, City Council Members, or legislative delegation that could create the perception of undue influence or conflict of interest. Very hard to say, because this is my home I have come into contact with so many people...but I am my own person, and will not be controlled by anyone Click here to enter text.
