

Fayetteville, North Carolina Millennial Advisory Commission Bylaws

Committee Statement of Purpose

The Fayetteville Millennial Advisory Commission is established to advise the City Council on issues relevant to the attraction, retention and engagement of Fayetteville residents between the ages of nineteen and thirty-nine. The Commission is dedicated to improving the quality of life for young adults by providing recommendations to programs and actions consistent with Council's Strategic Goal IV of making Fayetteville a "desirable place to live, work and recreate" for this generation.

Duties and Functions

The Millennial Advisory Commission will carry out the following responsibilities:

- Advise the City on economic development and social matters as well as potential actions affecting young adult City residents;
- Help develop specific initiatives focused on attracting and keeping young adult residents in the city;
- Innovate, execute and sustain diverse and inclusive network connections for young adult residents;
- Connect young adults to engagement opportunities with the larger Fayetteville community;
- Assist in the dissemination of current and accurate information about the Fayetteville community;
- Provide and encourage leadership development for young adult residents of the city; and,
- Create mentorships and serve as role models for Fayetteville youths.
- Actively participate in group discussion--listen, ask questions, share experiences, give feedback and introduce ideas
- Use digital tools and people power to spread information, create awareness, boost attendance and otherwise increase engagement with the City of Fayetteville
- Contribute individually and lead, manage or participate in group projects
- Obtain sponsorships (if needed)
- Removals from the Millennial Advisory Commission will be in accordance with City Council Policy # 110.1.

Composition of Members
